PUBLISHED WEEKLY IN CANAL POINT BY PAUL RARDIN

CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

RECENT OPERATIONS

By Paul Rardin

I didn't have a chance last week to comment on the recent dedication of the Palm Beach County Glades airport at Bacom Point. I've never seen a more perfect day of activities. Everything went off like clockwork. Every man assigned a job to perform was Johnny-on-the-spot and executed his duties with a smile.

The Pahokee Lions Club, Pahokee Rotary Club and Canal Point Lions club are due a great deal of commendation for sponsorship of the noon-day luncheon attended by visiting pilots and officials from East Coast and Glades towns. Mrs. W. H. Key and her associates served a fine meal and visitors were loud in their praise for her work. The sponsoring civic clubs furnished the cash to pay for the food. It was a splendid gesture on the part of the clubs.

The transportation of visiting airmen and other visitors, from the airport to the Woman's Club, for the luncheon was held, was without a hitch. The Pahokee Lions Club, with Leonard Dobrow as director of traffic, did a magnificent job of transporting the visitors. Of course, the Canal Point Lions were right on the beam and several cars were furnished by them. Jeeps met the visitors at their plane and carried them to the waiting cars which took them directly to the scene of the luncheon.

Police officials in the Glades were outstanding in their handling of the traffic on the big day. Highway patrolmen, county and city officials went all out to see that no fenders were dented. It was a splendid lesson in full and complete cooperation.

The jet planes from Jacksonville added to the program in no small way. It was the first time that many folks had seen the 600-mile-an-hour aircraft. Genial Zack Mosely, creator of "Smilin' Jack" was master of ceremonies at the dedication program and to say that he handled it well is putting it mildly. He is a past master at the art of entertaining a crowd.

I enjoyed delivering the dedicatory address. The crowd was most attentive. Many listeners were very complimentary after it was all over. I appreciated it a lot.

The airport today is concrete evidence of what cooperation of effort can bring about. Many months ago the idea of an airport was born. Your county commissioner perfected a planned program of procedure. It was followed to the letter. Today the airport is a reality. Whether you fly or don't, you'll admit, I believe, that it is a vast asset to the Lake Okechobee Region.

Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Long and daughter, Sandra accompanied by Faith Brown, were visitors in Miami Sunday.

New Machines Speed Messages Over Wires

The speed of sending and receiving telegrams at the Pahokee office of Western Union has been increased from 300 to 400 percent by the installation of a new automatic reperforation machine this week, according to Sam Williams, local manager.

This machine is in direct connection with a central relay office in Atlanta, Ga., where transmitted messages are automatically relayed to the offices of destination by machines without the need of manual manipulation. This means that wires sent from Pahokee to northern cities such as Boston and New York City or vice versa will be received on an average of only six to eight minutes from time they are sent, Mr. Williams said.

Garden Club Day To Be Observed Oct. 18

Tuesday, Oct. 18, has been designated as Garden Club Day in the Pahokee-Canal Point area. On this date all four circles will meet at 3:30 p. m. and at each meeting there will consist of a discussion of soil preparation and the growing of annuals, a plant exchange among members and a roll call in which each member will tell "Why I Belong to the Garden Club." Mrs. H. M. McIntosh, club president, asks members of all circles to stress simplicity in dress and refreshments at all regular circle meetings.

Gardenia Circle One, Mrs. C. G. Coburn, chairman, will meet 9:45 a. m. at the home of Mrs. J. S. Atkins, Pelican Lake, with Mrs. J. H. Bordeaux assisting as co-hostess.

Poinsettia Circle Two meets at the home of Mrs. C. A. Kolstad at 3:30 p. m. with Mrs. Kolstad chairman, in charge. All members are asked to bring note books to the meeting.

Poinsettia Circle Three, Mrs. Arch Blakey, chairman, will meet at the home of Mrs. Joseph Kahr at 3:30 p. m., with Mrs. Leo Maxwell and Mrs. Thomas Elliott to have charge of the program.

Hibiscus Circle Four, Mrs. L. W. Armstrong, chairman, will meet at the home of Mrs. C. T. Jackson at 10 a. m., with Mrs. John T. Pickett and Mrs. Lester Snyder assisting as co-hostesses.

Two Hurt When Gun Accidentally Dropped

A guard and a truck driver, accidentally shot Wednesday morning when one of them dropped a double-barreled 12-gauge shotgun while working in Canal Point, are in "good" condition at Everglades Memorial Hospital, Pahokee, according to an attaché.

Truck driver James C. Tabb, 61, suffered two bullet wounds in each leg below the knees. He suffered two bone fractures in his right leg from the buckshot, according to hospital Administrator I. J. Frasure.

Is Honorary Member Pahokee-Canal Point Garden Club

PAUL RARDIN

It may be a little unusual for men to belong to women's organizations but here is a case of County Commissioner Paul Rardin being an honorary member of the recently organized Pahokee-Canal Point Garden Club. At the invitation of the Garden Club president and members of the four individual circles of the organization the commissioner has accepted the honor. Recently Rardin dispatched a check for $25 to each of the circles wishing them luck and success in their planned efforts.

Freight Line To Use New Glades Airport

It looks like the new Palm Beach County Glades Airport may be the scene of freight operations in the near future. The U. S. Air Lines, Inc., has notified the Civil Aeronautics Administration that plans are under way to serve this section with air freight beginning on Nov. 7, 1949.

The air line will operate a non-scheduled freight line making the new Glades airport a stop. Full and complete details will be forthcoming within the next few days and they will be passed along to the public at that time.

Rev. & Mrs. Scoggins Are Named As Foreign Missionaries

The Rev. Blainard Elmo Scoggins and Hannah Belle Pearlman Scoggins, Canal Point, Monday were named missionaries to Palestine by the Southern Baptist Convention in Richmond, Va. The appointment was one of 14 made by the board for lifetime service overseas.

Rev. Scoggins is pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church in Canal Point.

Mrs. Pauline Rice was called to Shelbyville, Ky. Wednesday by the critical condition of her brother, Rufus Hughes, a prominent farmer of that area, who was run over by an automobile.

Swimming Pool Is Closed 'Til Spring

The Pahokee City Council at a regular meeting Tuesday night hired C. E. Dickerson as a new member of the Pahokee police force, Mr. Dickerson to assume his duties as patrolman on Nov. 1.

The council voted to close the Community Swimming Pool in the city park for the season on Friday, Oct. 14. The pool will again be opened to the public when warm weather returns in the spring.

An ordinance levying a five-cent tax on every package of cigarettes sold within the city limits was passed and Clerk W. F. Walker was instructed to send a certified copy of the ordinance to State Beverage Director Lewis M. Schott in Tallahassee by Nov. 1 in order that the city will be eligible to receive a rebate from the state levy.

South Bay Enjoys Building Spurt

SOUTH BAY—Three building permits have recently been granted by the South Bay Town Council.

The American Legion took out a permit to erect a $9,000 cement block and stucco building on NW Canal St. The floor has been laid and the walls are now going up. All work is being done by local Legionnaires under supervision of a contractor.

Miss Imer Jean Browning has taken out a permit to put up a $8,000 motel on her property on US Hwy. 27. Each room is to have a private bath according to the plans submitted. She has moved her house to the back of the lot and is building the motel adjacent to the highway.

South Bay Growers are enlarging their packing plant by widening the platform by 15 feet and adding a 30 foot addition on the east end of the building. These additions, being made at an estimated cost of $8,000, will increase the floor space permitting a rearrangement of bean belts and other equipment to give a maximum of efficiency.

The packing plant will be the largest in the Lake Okechobee region. It shipped 1,051 cars by rail and about an equal number by truck during the season of 1948-1949. Gross receipts of this one packing plant was roughly $2,500,000 for the season, according to unofficial reports. They are looking forward to a big season again this year.

Stanley Hooks Is Pres. Student Council

Stanley Hooks, president of the Pahokee High School Senior Class, was elected president of the High School Student Council at an election held by the students at the school Tuesday.

Other officials elected were Johanna McKinstry, vice president, Barbara Wilkinson, secretary, and Dickie Atkins, treasurer. This is the first student council organized at the local high school. It will work with school officials in governing the conduct and activities of the student body.

Perfect Record Is Intact As Devils Meet Seacrest Hi

The victory-starved Pahokee Blue Devils, still seeking their first win of the season after three successive defeats, have been down to earth this week working hard at blocking and tackling in preparation for their contest with the Seacrest Seahawks of Delray Beach who invade Lairs Field tonight with a perfect record of no defeats and no ties so far this season.

Coach Clyde Alley, who is having trouble getting his green team seasoned, not only drummed the fundamentals of football into his men this week but also had them run through defensive plays designed to stop the running and passing attacks of Charlie Gwynn, Seacrest's ace quarterback.

Alley, constantly striving to find a Blue Devil combination that will click, has made several changes in tonight's starting line-up. Bill Kirk, who has been playing center on the second string and the only Blue Devil that carries impressive weight this season, has been moved up to left tackle on the starting line-up and Ralph Chaney will start in fullback position, replacing Bobby Peacock who is bothered with injuries received in practice Tuesday afternoon.

In tonight's game Coach Alley believes his men will show a marked improvement over their weak performance last Thursday night when they suffered a 33 to 6 drubbing from the Lake Worth Trojans. The Trojans romped all over the Blue Devils on the ground and the Pahokee eleven had to take to the air in order to get anywhere, scoring their lone touchdown in the fourth quarter against what Coach W. H. Cook rated as his third team. Carney Wilder's passing and Melvin Tillis's receiving and running were bright spots in the Blue Devil performance.

Tonight's game will start at 8:15 p. m.

Probable starting-lineups: Pahokee—Melvin Tillis, 145, lb; Bill Kirk, 210, lt; Junior Holmes, 150, lg; Jacob Weeks, 150, c; Eugene Miller, 150, rg; Oils Weaver, 165, rt; Trevette Weeks, 155, lb; Stanley Hooks, 150, qb; Russell Sims, 160, lb; Carney Wilder, 150 rh, and Ralph Chaney, 150, fb.

First Flood Work In Broward County

VERO BEACH—First work under Florida's $208,000,000 flood control program will consist of six miles of levees along the north New river canal west of Ft. Lauderdale, Turner Wallis, engineer and secretary of the central and south Florida water control board, announced here today.

Wallis made the announcement at a meeting of the board to explain the water control plan to Indian River interests and to hear their problems.

Indian River citrus and vegetable growers and cattlemen learned that their section is not included in the $70,000,000 "first phase" work under the big over-all water-harnessing plan.

Oscar Rawls, U. S. engineer department flood control expert, told them, however, that he believed protection for the rich agricultural coastal strip might yet be included in the first part of the program, if they would put sufficient information into the hands of Florida's congressional delegation to justify it.

Joe S. Earman, Vero Beach member of the water board, explained that first work would be done in the Broward county area, because it was the disastrous flood conditions there in 1947 which brought about authorization of the flood control program under the U. S. engineers. Survey work made possible by $120,000 put up by Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties, he added, had furnished the data needed to go ahead with this work.

The plan hopes to prevent repetition of the disastrous 1947 floods which wiped out a rich citrus industry at Davie and inundated residential areas of Ft. Lauderdale, Hollywood and greater Miami.

Rawls explained the U. S. engineer plan for the Indian River area called for drainage of excess waters from the St. John's and Allapattah marshes on the west into the tidewaters of the Indian River.

Such drainage, the government engineer said, would not raise the level of the salt estuary sufficiently to endanger groves planted close to tidewater. He added, though, that every contingency would be studied before the plan was put into effect. If necessary, he said, additional outflow to the sea would be obtained by widening of Sebastian and Canaveral inlets, or by other means.

The plan, Rawls explained, calls for preservation of a water reservoir in the marshland area, as a bank account of water against droughty periods and as a climate equalizer.

The engineer said large bodies of water, such as could be held by water control structures in the St. John's and Allapattah marshes, could make the difference in keeping air temperature above the danger point for crops in a cold snap.

Indian River planters now respect and fear the water in the western marshes. They respect it as a source of irrigation water when the rains fall in winter. In late summer and fall they eye the marshes anxiously, lest they overflow into their fields.

This fear was voiced by Arthur Hill, Vero Beach planter, who declared that "with the water as high as it is now, if we got another hurricane we'd all be bankrupt."

Board member Earman said a flood brought on by a hurricane could be dealt with by the army engineers out of emergency funds. He pointed out that prompt emergency measures in the important Fort Pierce agricultural section had staved off a flood following the Aug. 26 hurricane.

Earman urged all flood-menaced sections to follow the example of Fort Pierce in being ready to present information which would justify emergency measures by the army engineers.

Rawls warned growers and cattlemen that even the completed $208,000,000 flood control plan would not automatically meet all their individual problems.

"The flood control works," he said, "will be like a great main sewer. It will be the responsibility of landowners to connect their lands with it, just as it is the responsibility of the city property owner to connect with the sewer main on his street."—Miami Daily News.

Graveside Services For Larrimore Infant

Graveside services for Infant Larrimore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Larrimore of Belle Glade, who died at birth on Tuesday Oct. 11, were held at the Port Mayaca Cemetery Wednesday at 2 p. m., with Rev. Ralph W. Todd, pastor of the Pahokee First Methodist Church officiating. Judge and Mrs. W. J. Larrimore of Pahokee are the paternal grandparents.

Wrong doing carries its penalties without an installment plan of payment.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

Folks, I want to tip you off to one of the most delightful musicals that has been screened here in some time. I am talking about "My Dream Is Yours," which is to be filmed at the Prince Theatre, this Sunday-Monday, with Jack Carson, Doris Day and Lee Bowman in the star roles and Adolphe Menjou, Eve Arden, S. K. Sakall heading the long list of recognized featured players.

Not only does this picture have a honey of a plot to unravel, but it also delivers such beautiful song numbers as "My Dream Is Yours," "I'll String Along with You," "Someone Like You," "Love Finds a Way," all of which are beautifully staged and rendered.

The picture is done in gorgeous technicolor, with some of the most beautiful background settings I have seen in a picture. I can label it as a big-time, spring-time, love-time musical comedy that is going to be appreciated by every member of the family.

See you at the movies—Mal.

Drainage Plan Defeated In Pahokee

The proposed $245,000 bond issue for financing the improvement of drainage and water control within the East Beach Water Control District was defeated Tuesday by absentee freeholders who stayed away from the polls.

The vote cast on the issue at the Pahokee city hall was 147 for the bond issue, 14 against and 10 blank ballots. There are 555 registered freeholders within the district requiring 293 freeholder votes to be cast in order for the special election to be valid.

Homecoming Plans Big At Gainesville

GAINESVILLE—University of Florida officials are busy preparing for some 25,000 homecoming guests Oct. 21-22, when Vice-President Alben W. Barkley will be awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

Packing all the events into a day and a half will leave few "dull moments" from 1:00 P. M. Friday until midnight Saturday at the 42nd annual jubilee.

Governor Fuller Warren will present the vice-president for the degree at the special convention ceremonies and university President J. Hillis Miller will confer the degree.

Barkley will speak Friday afternoon at the 26th annual banquet of Florida Blue Key, homecoming sponsors and student leadership fraternity. That night a gun salute will announce the opening of "gator growl," traditional student pep pageant including an array of skits, bands, and fireworks.

Unemployment Gains On State Payrolls

TALLAHASSEE — Unemployment compensation payments during September were $1,515,000, an increase over the same month last year of $686,456, it was disclosed Tuesday.

The State Industrial Commission reported that the payments went to 28,200 persons. In September, 1948, the commission had only 17,400 compensation payments on its books.

However, Commission Chairman Raymond E. Barnes said there was little change in Florida's economic picture since payments were only slightly higher in September than in August.

Barnes explained the increased payments were caused by a population growth and the fact that most veterans no longer are eligible for benefits under the readjustment act.

He said veterans on the "52-20" club roll had dropped from a high of some 14,500 to the present level of about 1,850. Many of those who no longer draw money from the federal government are on state unemployment compensation books, he said.

Florida pays $15 a week for 15 weeks to its unemployed. Barnes said most of the decline in employment was due to layoffs in seasonal industries.

The woman who had seventeen children in fifteen years is reported as saying, "there'll be no more for me." This is our idea of making up the mind slowly.

It is surprising how well you can get along with others if you keep your mouth shut and let somebody else do the talking.

Cooperation Saves Water Control Money

GAINESVILLE—"Desk survey" work on the South and Central Florida flood control program has cut some $2,000,000 from the initial cost of the project, a state official said last week. Col. A. G. Matthews, chief engineer for the division of water survey and research, said the saving was made possible through cooperation of the division, flood control district officials, and many other agencies.

"The saving comes from the fact that there is no necessity for large surveying parties in the field for long periods of time," Matthews explained. "This system (desk survey) takes only a few good men and the cooperation of a great number of agencies. We have that."

He listed agencies which are cooperating in the survey as the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, the University of Florida College of Engineering, U. S. Engineers State Road Department, the old Florida Geodetic Survey, Army Map Service, land office of the State Department of Agriculture, Internal Improvement Commission, Florida Geological Survey and the Central and South Florida Control Districts. Matthews addressed his second annual mapping and surveying conference at the University of Florida here.

TELEPHONE FOLKS

are setting a New Record
DOWN ON THE FARM

Southern Bell is putting in farm telephones five times as fast as before the war. Total telephone installations in Southern rural areas this year will set an all-time record!

Linking farms scattered over the South to markets and friends in town is a tremendous job that calls for thousands of poles and thousands of miles of telephone wire. It also calls for the know-how, experience, and the kind of equipment that has made America's telephone service the best in the world. Since the war approximately sixty million dollars have been spent to expand and improve telephone service in rural sections.

Telephone folks are working hard to extend service as rapidly as possible to all the farmers who want it. And we're making outstanding progress!

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall

But Curly "Knows What The Score Is!"

Was over at Doc Sherman's drug store listening to the World Series on the radio. Curly Lawson wandered in and says: "How about a chocolate malted, Doc?"

"Sorry, Curly," says Doc, "can't make you a malted for a while yet." "What's the idea?" Curly asks. "Well," says Doc, "most of the folks want to hear the game and the mixer makes too much noise." Curly thinks a moment and says, "Okay with me, Doc—I'll take a chocolate soda!"

This shows how tolerant folks can be. Doc showed his respect for how the majority felt; Curly was big enough not to insist on his malted even though he doesn't happen to be fond of baseball.

From where I sit, willingness to respect the other people's feelings is important in a Democracy. If we're tolerant of a person's like for baseball or a glass of temperate beer, we've come a long way on the right road... the Road to a better America, that is!

News Notes From State Capital

TALLAHASSEE—The offices of Comptroller C. M. Gay are humming as plans and regulations for starting Florida's new sales tax take shape. The comptroller is preparing to administer the tax collection through regional offices already established for collection of other store taxes. Regulations are now being prepared for the state beverage director begin the new deal for the cigarette tax, with cities getting what is collected within their borders, and the remainder going to the state for tuberculosis hospitals. The proceeds ($6 million odd) of the seventh cent of gasoline tax will be taken from the general fund and the schools and sent to the counties for construction of roads and bridges. Comptroller Gay has expressed grave concern that the state may not remain solvent through this winter because of the uncertainty of the sales tax, and the withdrawal of the cigarette and gas taxes from state purposes.

TALLAHASSEE—After July 1, 1951, teachers in Florida are to be given continuing contracts which will make them immune from firing except for gross misconduct, immorality or crime. Attorney General Richard W. Evin advised State School Superintendent Thomas D. Bailey that when the new law takes effect in 1951, teachers will not be hired on a yearly basis, but will have permanent tenure after a three or four year probationary period. These continuing contracts, he said, may not be disturbed except for cause, which means that a teacher may only be subject to contract cancellation for gross misconduct of one kind or another. In another opinion, the Attorney General said cities may enact ordinances requiring taxi drivers to be finger printed and investigated for moral fitness and physical ability. He also declared that World War II veterans may be exempt from paying occupational licenses if they are disabled from performing manual labor, just like World War I veterans.

TALLAHASSEE—Joseph Y. Cheney is the new chairman of the Florida Parole Commission, to serve for the next two years. He succeeds Francis R. Bridges, who has just completed a two-year term as chairman, and who was the first chairman of the commission when it was formed in 1941. Raymond Marsh, third member of the commission, will be the secretary.

TALLAHASSEE—Governor Warren, celebrating his forty-fourth birthday, appointed Olin E. Watts of Jacksonville to be member-at-large and therefore chairman of the state board of law examiners. Watts was a University of Florida classmate with Governor Warren, has practiced law in Jacksonville since 1928, and is a native of Bartow. He succeeds H. Plant Osborne of Jacksonville.

TALLAHASSEE—The common law defense of entrapment no longer is valid in Florida. This legislature, as a follow-up of the Scruggs bribery trial last summer, passed a bill abolishing the defense of entrapment in prosecutions for bribery. Governor Warren recommended it. Two members of the state barbers' sanitary commission are to be tried soon on a charge of accepting $500 from an applicant for a license to be a barber.

TALLAHASSEE—Florida State Hospital, overloaded with issue and elderly feeble-minded people, gets a release of $112,000 to hire more doctors and to pay better salaries to employees in setting up a psychiatric ward. The cabinet released 90 per cent of the fund made available for this purpose by the legislature. All other state funds are being cut back 10 per cent, pending a showing on how the new sales tax will produce. Nurses training was opened up at Florida State Hospital for applicants from other states. Florida nurses are boycotting the institution until training nurses are permitted to eat in the dining room with the doctors, instead of in the cafeteria with the employees.

TALLAHASSEE—The state began its part in paying for the central and south Florida flood control project, with the release of $504,175. This money will be turned over to federal engineers when U. S. money is available to pay the 85 per cent assumed by them. Bids will be asked October 15 for the first unit of the flood control program, a 6-mile levee in Broward county. The program will cost $208,000,000.

TALLAHASSEE—Completion of landscaping in the capital center-has been authorized, at a cost of $59,000. It will be carried on by the state improvement commission, and will include landscaping on city block between the capitol and the new supreme court building, tearing out a filling station, and constructing two small parking areas to the rear of the supreme court building. This work was halted early last spring, prior to the meeting of the legislature. Another block between the capitol and the Caldwell building is to be kept temporarily for parking of state employees. No other large areas are contemplated for parking under the Taylor plan of capitol center development.

TALLAHASSEE—Florida Democrats were rallied this week by Jerry W. Carter to back President Truman's choice for member of the Federal Power Commission.

In messages and letters to state and local party leaders, committeemen and committeewomen, Carter as Democratic national committeeman for Florida urged support of Leland W. Olds as a member of the commission. Carter urged the Democrats to let their senators know how they feel about what he called the issue "of protecting the American people against the national monopoly-seeking power lobby."

He said that efforts to block the confirmation of Olds to the federal power commission raises this issue between the Democratic and Republican parties, and urged Democrats to let their senators know their feeling on the subject.

Olds, he declared, has stood for what the Democratic party and its platform stand for—the best interest of the public in the field of utility regulation. Defeat of his nomination, Carter added, would be a defeat for the millions of Americans who are entitled to fair power rates, and would be a victory for the national power lobbyists and the Republican party.

Open House Is Held At M. E. Parsonage

The Rev. and Mrs. Ralph W. Todd and the Pahokee First Methodist WSCS entertained Thursday night with "open house" at the parsonage which was recently redecorated, repainted inside and out and furnished with new equipment.

Mrs. John A. Dulany, WSCS president, stood at the door with Rev. and Mrs. Todd to welcome the guests. The refreshments table, laid with a hand-crocheted cloth, was centered with a large punch bowl flanked on either side by tall lighted tapers. The Todd home was beautifully decorated with bouquets of pink and white flowers arranged by Mrs. John T. Pickett.

Mrs. L. W. Armstrong, who presided at the table by Mrs. G. W. Byrd, Mrs. J. V. Thomas and Mrs. Ronald Watson. Mrs. M. P. Holman was in charge of the guest book. The Misses Laurie Rogers, Myra Cruthirds and Stella Lou Todd assisted as Junior hostesses.

A musical program, presented by Mrs. R. W. Sanders, included vocal duets by Mrs. T. L. Burns and Mrs. R. M. Sanders and by Mrs. Duncan Padgett and Mrs. Robert Walker, violin solos by Mrs. R. W. Sanders, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. M. Sanders and vocal solos by Mrs. R. W. Sanders, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. William McClenithan. Mrs. McClenithan also played several piano selections during the evening.

Mrs. Todd was assisted in making general arrangements for the open house by Mrs. William McClenithan, WSCS hospitality chairman.

Helen Hays Circle Organized Monday

A group of young married women of the Pahokee First Baptist WMU met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Grimes, WMU president, Monday afternoon to organize a new circle which was named the Helen Hays Circle.

State-Wide Meet Of PTA Groups

ORLANDO — The annual convention of the Florida Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held here Nov. 8-10, with all committees named, according to Mrs. L. H. Gibbs, general chairman, and Mrs. Ralph Miller, hostess. San Juan Hotel has been named as headquarters, with Mrs. C. N. Prather and Mrs. Henry Simmonis as chairman of housing and hospitality.

Mrs. H. R. Alexander and Mrs. T. H. Bruner are general chairman for entertainment. The convention's largest social function will be the banquet, the closing feature of the conference, and it will be held on Thursday evening at the Coliseum. Mrs. Gibbs said seating will not be limited and the speakers' table will be in full view of all dinner guests.

The nominating committee's recommendations for officers to be elected in group one is as follows: Mrs. Edith McBride, Cameron, Gainesville, president; Mrs. C. D. Johnson, Quincy, first vice president; Mrs. W. L. Mussett, Miami, secretary; and Mrs. Earl Williams, Ormond, treasurer. The present officers who are not eligible for reelection are Mrs. J. Floyd Griffin, Tampa; Mrs. Arthur G. Ivey, Gainesville; Mrs. Joe Mason, Miami, and Mrs. E. S. Swenson, St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Cameron's nomination marks the first time in the 26-year history of the organization that a person actively engaged in the educational field has been recommended for the presidency, according to Mrs. Griffin.

Handicapped To Be Given Consideration

Finding jobs for 15 handicapped workers is the goal of the annual observance of National Employ the Physical Handicapped Week, October 2-8, according to A. M. Larrimore, manager of the Florida State Employment Service.

Applicants with some degree of handicap include 7 veterans, Larrimore added.

Emphasizing the policy of the Employment Service in sending only well qualified applicants for a job, Larrimore said that any handicapped worker referred to an employer will be just as well qualified for the job as an unimpaired worker.

Larrimore is urging employers in this area to survey their present job requirements in order to find openings for handicapped persons. Physically disabled persons not now working, but who are interested in working should register with the Employment Service office, where their qualifications for work can be evaluated.

"When properly placed, disabled workers are enthusiastic, hard working, and satisfactory employees. Their accident record is low and their productive record high," Larrimore added.

Employer cooperation in the use of the handicapped in this area is evidenced by the number the Employment Service has placed in the past 9 months.

Employers with job openings should get in touch with the Employment Service at 109 S. Main Street or phone 2931. Handicapped workers seeking employment should contact the same office. Canal Point is serviced by the State Employment Service on alternate Tuesdays when a representative is in the City Hall in Pahokee from 9:30 a. m. to 12 noon.

OUTDOOR PARTY

Children of the Intermediate Department at the Pahokee First Methodist Church school enjoyed an outdoor party and picnic supper at No. 10 lock at St. Lucie Canal Friday evening. The children made the trip in a canvas-covered truck owned by R. J. Simonsen and driven by Mrs. Ruth Hutton. They were also accompanied by Ralph Johnson and Mrs. George Ramsey.

Officers Installed By Jernigan Circle

The Grace Jernigan Circle, First Baptist WMU, met at the home of Mrs. Jessie Barnes Tuesday night. Newly installed officers presiding for the first time included Mrs. Barnes, circle chairman; Mrs. Raymond Caruthers, vice chairman; Mrs. Seth W. Robert, secretary; treasurer; Mrs. Tommie Lee DuBose, social chairman; Mrs. W. A. Keen, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, program chairman.

Mrs. Baldwin presented a program on "Christ, the Answer for Pagan People." Talks on the topic were given by Mrs. H. C. Graham, Mrs. DuBose, Mrs. Wiley Tillis, Mrs. D. W. Young and Mrs. Marjorie Henderson. Mrs. Margaret Thompson was in charge of the devotions.

Woman's Club Has First Meet Of Year

The Pahokee Woman's Club at the first business luncheon of the new season, held Wednesday in the clubhouse, voted a cash donation to the fund being raised to finance the annual Halloween party for school children to be held on the night of Oct. 29. The club also voted the use of its building without charge for one of the class parties at the Halloween carnival.

The group voted to sponsor the Pahokee Brownie Troop again this year and plans were made for a benefit bridge party to be held at the clubhouse on Oct. 14, with Mrs. Lewis Friends, finance chairman, in charge of arrangements.

It was announced that a County Federation meeting will be held in Delray Beach on Nov. 5 and all members wishing to attend were asked to contact the club president, Mrs. W. H. Jones, Jr.

Mrs. Norman Kennedy read a resolution written by Mrs. Frank Rozelle on the death of Mrs. V. C. Denton, a former club member. This resolution was adopted and a copy will be sent to Mr. Denton.

The club voted to give all members the choice of being active or associate members. Those who take no active part in club affairs will be classed as associate members and will be assessed $5 a year in dues. On the other hand, members who take part in club activities will pay only $3 a year in dues.

Mrs. Joan Tucker and Mrs. Alie Mae Watson were introduced as visitors.

Joint Meeting Of Legion Auxiliaries

Mrs. A. L. Prince of Delray Beach, district president of the American Legion Auxiliary paid an official visit to the Post 90 Auxiliary and the Post 242 Auxiliary at a joint meeting of the two units held Tuesday night at the Legion Home in Canal Point.

Guest speaker was Mrs. V. V. Allison, Southern Area vice president, who gave a talk on "Auxiliary Goals" and reported on the National Convention which she attended as a delegate in Philadelphia, Pa., last August.

Both Mrs. Prince and Mrs. Allison were presented with red carnation corsages from the Post 90 Auxiliary and with gifts from both Auxiliaries.

Mrs. Evelyn Dannelly, president of Post 242 Auxiliary, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Rena Canipe, Mrs. Dot Wilson, Mrs. Bertie Maxson and Mrs. Nell Hollon were on the committee in charge of the serving of refreshments.

Canal Bank Will Be Cleared Of Shacks

"The cooperation of Citizens in Law Enforcement" was the subject of a talk by Deputy Sheriff Frank O'Connell at the regular Monday dinner meeting of the Canal Point Lions Club.

The beautification of the banks of the West Palm Beach Canal within the townsite of Canal Point was a topic of discussion. It was pointed out that the first problem confronting the Lions Club and the Garden Club, joint sponsors of the beautification project, are the trailer houses and shacks on the canal bank which must be moved before the beautification program can be carried out.

President A. R. Harrington presided at the meeting. Thirty-nine members were present.

Two Circles To Meet Monday Evening

Two circles of the Pahokee First Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service are scheduled to meet Monday night, Oct. 17, at 8 p. m.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, October 16.

The Golden Text is: "All things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation" (II Cor. 5:18).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And hereby we do know that he knoweth him, if we keep his commandments" (I John 2:1 (beginning "And"), 3).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage. His mission was both individual and collective. He did life's work aright, not only in justice to himself, but in mercy to mortals,—to show them how to do theirs, but not to do it for them nor to relieve them of a single responsibility" (18:3-9).

Girl Scouts Hold Second Meeting

The second meeting of the Canal Point Girl Scouts was held Friday October 7, 1949 in the Methodist Sunday School Building. The meeting started with singing. Witchcraft Walking at Night and White Coral Bells. Groups divided into patrols. Part of the girls are working for their 1st class badges. While others are working on Tenderfoot requirements.

New members attending were Elois Haggins, Aleph Hall, Joann Goodson. The meeting closed by singing Tape in a Friendship circle.

Pahokee PTA Has 'Womanless Wedding'

A Halloween party for Pahokee children will be held on the school grounds Saturday night, Oct. 29, starting at 7 p. m., according to plans announced by the Pahokee Parent-Teacher Association at a meeting in the high school auditorium Monday night.

The main feature of this party, held annually by PTA in cooperation with other civic groups, will be the parade of costumes on La'r Field following which four prizes for the most outstanding costumes will be awarded in four age groups of children. Free refreshments will be served to all the children and PTA will have a lunch stand on the grounds for the convenience of adult spectators. Mrs. Joe Brown was named general chairman in charge of party arrangements.

New PTA year books were distributed to members at the meeting. Mrs. J. C. Shoepel thanked Miss McLendon and members of her commercial studies class for the excellent work they did in preparing the books.

Principal C. A. Canipe announced that the Pahokee Girl Scout Troop was to be organized for the season at a meeting on the First Methodist Church lawn Wednesday afternoon. Girls of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades are eligible to join the scouts and adults willing to assist in local girl scout work were asked to contact Mrs. J. T. Boynton.

The monthly attendance awards were won by Mrs. Elsie Sims, sixth grade room at the elementary school and by the eleventh grade at the high school. It was announced that the November meeting will be held on the first Monday, Nov. 7, instead of the second Monday in order that PTA will be able to obtain the services of Dr. B. F. Austin, Palm Beach County health director, as guest speaker.

On the program a "womanless marriage" was presented by the men of the community under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Graham who was presented with a pink carnation corsage. Taking part in the mock wedding were L. M. Collins, the bride; Sam Williams, groom; Robert O. Lampi, pianist; Elmer Jones, vocal soloist; Jack Spencer, best man; Dick Parrish, maid of honor; Emmett Holt, flower girl; R. J. Schroeder and Thomas Elliott, bridesmaids; Dwight Geiger, ring bearer; Gil Galbreath, jilted lover; R. L. Brooks, mother of the bride; A. E. Jensen, father of the bride; Rev. Earl J. Jones, officiating minister; D. W. Cunningham, C. A. Canipe and Alex Johnson, ushers.

Hostesses during the social hour which followed the program were Mrs. C. A. Cobb, Mrs. T. L. Burns, Mrs. A. L. Vertommen, Mrs. Paul Riddle, Mrs. R. D. Hardaway, Mrs. Park Keen, Mrs. Paul Sasser, Mrs. A. C. Santo, Mrs. Marvin Cowart, and Mrs. Violet Hall.

Bride's Shower For Mrs. Frank Tillis

Mrs. Seth Robert, Mrs. Chester Batchelor and Mrs. L. G. Alderman entertained at Mrs. Alderman's home on Thursday night of this week with a bride's party and a shower in compliment to Mrs. Willey Frank Tillis, the former Betty June Batchelor.

The refreshment table was centered with a beautifully decorated three-tiered cake topped with love birds. Portions of the cake were served with ice cream molded in the form of miniature bride and bridegroom. Members of the Philathia and Young People's Classes of the First Baptist Church school were invited guests.

Annette McIntosh was elected president of Mrs. Tommie Lee Durbosa's sixth grade room at an election of class officers held this week. Other officers chosen for the year were Kay Friend, vice president; Gaye Shoepel, secretary; Jeannine Mock, treasurer, and Jack Stanley, reporter.

It was only 457 years ago that a fast talking sailor boy sold a bit of goods to a big time babe sitting on a hot seat in Spain . . . his name was Chris "Fuller Brush" Columbus . . . this babe, Queenie, put her rocks in hock to float Chris on a new venture that could have just as well been forgotten . . . if the exhibition that was put on in the High School Auditorium Monday nite is any criterion of where things are headed . . . Chris should have headed in a different direction . . . he probably has turned over so many times in his grave by now he looks like a cork-screw. We are not casting any reflections on Mrs. Graham or Mrs. Schoepfel or any one else that help put on the show . . . we are fully aware they had nothing to work with . . .

The PTA Womanless Wedding opened Monday nite with the grand entrance of one Madame Roberta Lampi . . . I don't know whether he was supposed to represent a nitemare or one of Christopher's battlegarions . . . to prove he created a sensation . . . O. B. McClure allowed he could plow twenty acres a day if he could hook that to a six inch bottom plow . . . he provided the down beat in black and white for the prima donna of the show . . . one Hairy-ette Jones . . . dressed in a red job that failed to arouse the bull in anything except himself . . . he proved it with his voice . . .

Next came the wedding party . . . it would have been stopped by the county health officer had he been there . . . all of them should have been dusted with the Double L 5 percent DDT dust . . . Bridesmaids Daisy Parrish and Emmaline Holt, a couple of sexsations from the south side, were special cases . . . they should have been run through a dippin' yam . . . Sam "Dot & Dash" Williams was supposed to be the groom . . . he stood there like he was waiting to shake hands with a hole in the ground . . . of course he didn't have anything to look forward to except marryin' up with "Mad Muscles Minnie" Collins, the bride . . . she would be about as interesting as a glass of last weeks beer . . . if I were man, beast or octopus I could not go that . . . I would look like the best man did . . . you could tell the preacher never attended a shot-gun wedding before . . . Gil sat in the corner and cried his eyes out . . . probably at the whole performance . . . oh well the actors were no worse than the people that failed to turn out for the free show . . . speaking of Gil or something else reminds me of a story that Thadd Whidden is responsible for . . .

A long time ago three small boys were sitting on the curb . . . one had a model airplane . . . one had a fire engine . . . and one was reading Esquire . . . an elderly gentleman stopped and asked what they wanted to be when they grew up . . . Said Gil, the first, "An airplane pilot" . . . said Marvin, the second, "A Pahokee Fireman" . . . said Duncan, looking up from his magazine, "To heck with the details, I just want to grow up" . . .
